1. The fabric of the window treatments is repeated in the Shaker-style door to the pantry. 2. Borrowing an idea from a kitchen in Provence, pots and pans are stored under the wood-burning oven and concealed by a plaid curtain. 3. The couple prefers Avonite solid-surfacing to granite or marble, because it is softer and scratch resistant. 4. Husband and wife created his-and-her cooking areas on either side of the range; square drawers are for spices, and rectangular drawers house cooking knives. 5. By arranging the range, sink, island, and overhead cabinets in one station, everything one needs is in arm's reach.
